Conditions of Booking

1. I understand the nature of the course and agree to abide by all safety regulations. Outdoor adventurous activities take place in varied natural environments where there are natural hazards and risks to manage. Customers participating in courses are expected to comply with all safety guidance and instructions given by White Hall and its staff.
2. I understand that in the event of accident, loss or damage, the County Council will be responsible for its own liability including neglect attributable to its employees in the course of their duty.
3. I understand that the course fee does not include insurance against cancellation, personal injury, loss or damage to equipment whilst on the course.
4. I understand that in the event of having to cancel my place on this course, the following criteria will apply:
 - Within 1 month of the course date – full payment will still be payable
 - Over 1 month of the course date – 25% will be payable
5. Whilst every attempt is made to ensure that courses/activities actually run, in the event of dangerous or unsuitable conditions a course may have to be cancelled. White Hall Centre reserve the right to cancel if the course is undersubscribed.

In the event of cancellation customers will be offered the choice of the following options:

- Full refund of the fee paid
OR
 - Another booking on a different date
6. Customers participating in courses/activities must expect to be involved in adventurous and sometimes strenuous activities. Please complete the medical section as part of the booking process.
