

Teaching Orienteering – Part 1

Course No: 3533(A) Wednesday 2 September 2020

This course is aimed at teachers, youth sector workers and people working in schools and outdoor centres. The course delivers the knowledge, understanding and practical ability to teach the basic skills of orienteering to beginners in a fun and exciting way on areas that are safe, such as school sites or outdoor centre grounds. You will also be able to deliver simple competitions for participants.

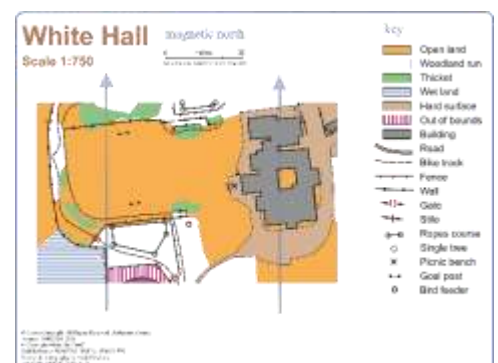

Learning outcomes of the course

- Introduce children to orienteering in a safe environment
- Plan sessions to introduce the basic understanding of how to use an orienteering map and include the following skills: map as a bird's eye view, importance of north, map orientation,
- Use of map colours and commonly used symbols, keeping in contact with the map and "thumbing".
- Plan and deliver orienteering sessions that meet the safety standards required by British Orienteering.
- Organise and deliver simple orienteering competitions
- Be able to advise children on the opportunities to further their orienteering experience

Pre-requisites

- Candidates must be over 16 years of age.
- It will be an advantage if you have some knowledge of orienteering prior to the course although this is not essential.

Course content

On the course you will be given the knowledge to introduce the basic skills of orienteering and have opportunity to discuss and practice using this knowledge. The course is 6 hours and practical in nature and you will be expected to join in with group discussions and activities.
