Is there any risk?

White Hall has full risk assessments for all aspects of the centre. All Outdoor Adventurous Activities are supervised by highly skilled and nationally qualified White Hall staff. Activities are introduced at an appropriate level, at carefully chosen sites, using all necessary safety equipment, which is provided by the Centre. White Hall conforms fully to the requirements of the 'Adventure Activities Licensing Authority' and are licensed by them. However, adventure activities, by their nature, involve an element of risk, which cannot be totally eliminated. Having said that, White Hall has an excellent safety record.

If you have any concerns please contact White Hall Centre and we will be happy to provide you with further information.

To help us in regard to safety, there are a few rules for young people, stressing the need for responsible behaviour. Young people should be sensible, listen to group briefings and follow instructions from centre staff.

General Information

White Hall staff takes pride in their friendly and supportive work with young people on courses. During activities the children are supervised by White Hall staff. There may be times, such as, for a short while after lunch, that the children may be playing in the games room or on the lawn in front of the house when they will be indirectly supervised. So that everyone can enjoy their course we expect good standards of behaviour and a willingness to comply with a few Centre rules. In exceptional circumstances of unsuitable behaviour, parents/guardians will be contacted by the Course Coordinator. The Centre reserves the right to insist on the removal of a child from a course (without refund of course fees) if the enjoyment and safety of others is at risk.

The first morning will be spent getting to know the children and putting them into groups based on their age so that they will follow a programme of activities suitable for their age group. They will do some team building activities that will help them get to know the other children in the group. We will be equipping them with a set of waterproofs, walking boots and a rucksack (if your child already has these they are welcome to use their own).

If you have any queries about this or any other aspects of the course please discuss them with us.

Health

Please inform the Centre of any medical condition or medication that we should be aware of.

Please can any medicines that your child brings be clearly labelled with the doses and times required shown. We need written permission for children to take medicines here or for us to administer them; please can that be provided.

Radon is a naturally occurring gas which is always present in the air we breathe and can be found in varying concentrations in houses, buildings, cellars, mines and caves. Happily the caves and mines visited by White Hall groups have been found to have very low radon levels, especially in the winter months. The risk to health from exposure to radon during a few caving trips is almost negligible and is far outweighed by the educational benefits.

Young people at White Hall do undertake activities in or near lakes and streams - Leptospirosis (Weil's disease) is a rare but endemic waterborne disease in Great Britain and there is therefore a small risk of infection from contact with water. Should a young person who has attended a course at White Hall develop flu or fever like symptoms, we advise consulting your GP and informing them that your son/daughter has had contact with inland lake and stream water.

Ticks are found in the countryside. In some parts of the UK they are known to carry Lyme's disease, but as of yet, not in the Peak District – but it is always sensible to be aware. The most common symptom is a red skin rash that looks like a bullseye on a dartboard. If the rash or flu like symptoms occur – usually up to 30 days after the bite, or you discover a tick please consult your GP.

Where to find us

White Hall is 3 miles north of Buxton on the A5004, Buxton – Whaley Bridge road. Access to the centre from the road is by a single lane driveway of a few hundred metres in length with a couple of passing places, so there may be some waiting required to get in or out. There is also a lane from Elnor Lane, Whaley Bridge and a lane from Combs village which takes you to the centre's back gate.

Please be aware if coming from Buxton and using a satnav that it doesn't take you through Chapel-en-le-Frith and Combs. Some do not recognise our main drive off the A5004.

On arrival at the centre, children should go to the front door where our staff will be waiting to welcome them. There will be a signing in system. At the end of the day please ensure that you have signed them out with an instructor so we know that they have been collected.
