

Brief Description

Woods have eyes is a game where students collect as many points as you can by finding small pie dishes with marked points on them. The game can be used as an opportunity to get to know the grounds at the centre.

PSHE and Wider Learning Outcomes

- Team work
- Physical health
- Co-operation

Session Objectives

By the end of the session, students will

- Will be able to work as an effective team
- To develop skills on strategy and tactics
- Be able to motivate and support others

National Curriculum Outcomes

Maths: solve addition and subtraction multi-step problems in contexts, deciding which operations and methods to use and why

Maths: perform mental calculations, including with mixed operations and large numbers

Progression / Differentiation

This activity can be adapted by changing the area in which it takes place you can make the area smaller or a flat open space to suit all abilities.

Vocabulary

Listening, team, co-operation, points, tactics, communication, achievement, participation